

CPOECU TEAMS UP WITH BENEFIT RESOURCE PARTNERS

The benefit package offered by the federal government for postal employees can be confusing—it's complex and lacks resources for those with questions. That's why we partnered with Benefit Resource Partners (BRP): to help you get the facts.

BRP serves the unique financial and informational needs of postal employees just like you. They work with you to properly coordinate your benefits by utilizing a large network of federal-focused financial professionals who understand the unique and ever-changing demands of working for the postal service.

They pride themselves on providing collaborative consulting sessions to help you build a sustainable retirement income, ensuring your best interests are put first.

Together, we're here to assist you with coordinating and maximizing your benefits, and ultimately protecting the ones who matter most: your family. Please contact BRP directly at 800.905.8576 or email info@YourBRP.com to request your personalized Postal Employee Benefit Workbook compliments of BRP.
